I hereby retain you as my Financial Planning advisor to analyze my assets, including investment portfolio, and advise me concerning any planning and investment strategies which you consider necessary or appropriate based on my planning objectives. Unless I have instructed you otherwise, your advice to me shall be as I request advice from you on an as needed basis. Your advice shall be provided to me either verbally, directly or over the phone, or in writing as I request.

I understand and agree that you will not be, on my behalf, voting shares, partnership interests or other such equity interests owned by me in corporate shareholder meetings or partnership or other entity meetings or in resolutions in lieu thereof, either by proxy or otherwise, nor will you on my behalf enter into proxy agreements or any other arrangements relating to the voting of equity interests, whether such interests are contained in my Investment Portfolio, or otherwise.

For your services I agree that you shall be entitled to compensation in the amount of $600.00 for a less complex plan and $1,000.00 for a complex plan, which would include a full investment portfolio review. In addition, for financial planning advice that is not in the course of developing a specific financial plan, I will pay you at the rate of $100.00 per hour with a minimum consultation fee of $_____ for each consultation you provide. I shall make payment within 15 days of your billing me for each consultation.

The compensation payable to Dempsey Investment Management, LLC, as set forth above, is separate and not the same as custodial fees or those charged by mutual funds, Exchange Traded Funds, and annuities. I understand that, separate from and in addition to compensation to Dempsey Investment Management, LLC, I may be charged fees for mutual fund trades and for establishing, maintaining or closing a brokerage account with a custodian.

This Financial Planning Advisory Agreement is revocable at any time by me or you by written notice.
